

Healing-inspired rooms, added
floors and more

Adding two floors
on the east tower

Family Lounge

Renovating existing patient areas

Elevator Lobby

Energy-saving design

Building the future. Caring for you. | 2015-2019

After project completion, nearly all patient rooms will be private, including all rooms on the brand new fifth and sixth floors. Existing patient floors are being completely renovated. All décor will promote healing through use of a calming color palette. Each room will include comfortable space and furniture for families and visitors.

For more information about the project, please visit parknicollet.com/methodist.